THE FOUNDATION FAITH OF GOD

Outreach '81 third quarter-SEPTEMBER

ATLANTA FOUNDATION

Rev. Raphael de Peyer, Director of The Atlanta Foundation, has channeled The Lord's Healing to many sick and troubled people. Here he is laying on hands during The Lord's Day Celebration.

ATLANTA

The Atlanta Foundation, under the directorship of Rev. Raphael de Peyer, has developed to combine a broad spectrum of Outreach Ministries with the Activities, Worship and fellowship offered at Faith Center, their Peachtree Road headquarters.

The Prison Ministry has brought the healing love of GOD into the world of suspicion and fear that dominates prison life.

The Animal Ministry is using radio, television and the press along with evangelism and legislative activism to make known the plight of animals, especially in bloodsports and research, to people throughout Atlanta, Georgia and Birmingham, Alabama. Their prayers and work are helping to achieve real results in this crucial area.

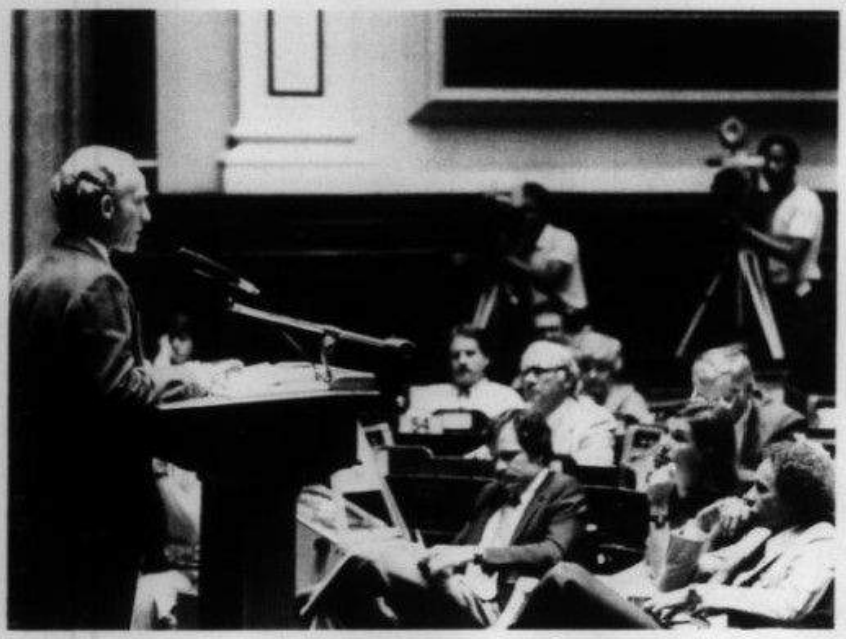
The Circle of Power involves individuals and groups around the country and around the world in healing prayers for the sick and troubled.

The Media: The Atlanta Ministers are well known to area residents through their frequent appearances on radio and television. Rev. Raphael is a frequent guest on famous WRNG-AM ('Ring Radio') and appeared recently on WTB-TV's national cable TV hookup.

Birmingham, Alabama is the location of a substantial following of Rev. Raphael's Healing Outreach. Regular meetings, workshops and Healing Services are conducted there by Rev. de Peyer and Rev. Jana Bernadette. On a recent visit to Birmingham, Revs. Raphael and Jana taped two television interviews, addressed a meeting organized by the Alabama Animal Adoption Society and gave an interview to The Birmingham Post-Herald Religion Editor, Leonard Chamblee.

Faith Center located at 2808 Peachtree Road, NW in Atlanta, is the base of operations of all Atlanta Foundation ministries and projects. In its own right, Faith Center is a beautiful and gracious Georgian style building that is a center for healing and counselling as well as all weekly Foundation Activities and Celebrations.

Each week, those in need of healing seek prayers and the 'Laying on of Hands' during The Lord's Day Celebration. Disciple Margery Cunningham and Aide Robert Keller also join in prayers for the sick.



The Atlanta Foundation is very active in animal protection work. Rev. John Christopher addresses the Georgia State Legislature during a hearing on the cruel 'sport' of dog fighting. Rev. Christopher has been in the forefront of the fight to put teeth in the law by making dog fighting a felony rather than a misdemeanor with it is currently.

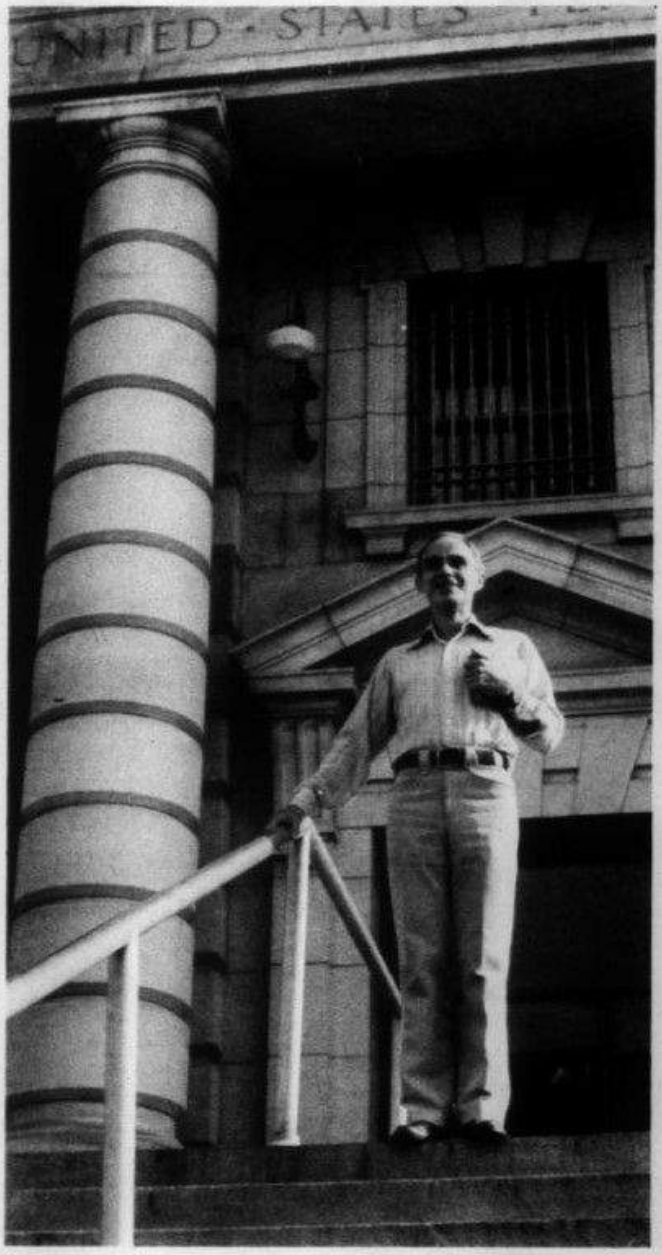
Rev. Charity Benedicte and her dog, Lugs Bunny. Rev. Charity is a leader in the Atlanta Prison Ministry. With Rev. John Christopher, she conducts regular counsellings with inmates on Death Row in The Georgia State Penitentiary at Jackson and at The Atlanta Woman's Transitional Center, a halfway house for women. Lugs, by the way, is a British colloquialism for ears!



The Atlanta Foundation is the headquarters of The Circle of Power, an international healing prayer group comprised of individuals and groups in various cities. Above are some of the members of the Ghana, Africa Circle of Power praying over prayer requests. From left, Br. Philip, Sr. Mary, Sr. Grace, Sr. Helena, Sr. Rose and Br. Nicholas. Sr. Grace, a nurse with the Ghana Ministry of Health, is the founder and Dean of The Circle of Power in Ghana. The Lord is blessing their ministry with many healings.

Rev. Jana Bernadette, coordinator of The Circle of Power prayer fellowship, organizes the operation of Faith Center as well as being active in work with the media and the healing outreach to area hospitals and other southern cities.

For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; ... yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

Ecclesiastes 3:19

- 240,000 cats and dogs are born each day in the U.S. - at least 70,000 of these are unwanted - at least 36,000 are killed in humane societies.

AROUND THE FOUNDATION

THE NORTHEAST MINISTRIES

Want a beautiful dog, cat, puppy or kitten to brighten your life? Well, if you are anywhere between New York City and Washington, D.C., we recommend that you call The Northeastern Ministries center at 215-536-6478.

The beautiful collection of Founders, human and otherwise, under the guidance of Director Rev. Faith Maloney, has opened their hearts and home to all the animals in need that come their way.

So be an angel and give one of GOD's special creatures a loving home.

DENVER

The 'Survivalist Movement' is attracting more and more attention in the media and the press. The Foundation Faith of GOD has long advocated spiritual as well as physical preparedness for upheavals of the latter days. Rev. Cyrus Daniel and the Denver Founders, in addition to preaching the message of The End, have also taken an active role in helping people to relate realistically to a dying world through spiritual understanding.

Now, Rev. Daniel is offering the convenience of inexpensive, long storage life survival foods. For more information, contact Rev. Cyrus Daniel at The Denver Foundation.

DALLAS

On behalf of The Dallas Foundation, we'd like to extend our thanks to the Dallas Cowboys Football organization for the help and support that they have given to The Crusade of Innocence. Dallas fans, keep your ears out for the Public Service Announcements recorded by your favorite Cowboys for Rev. Lucia Smith's ministry to children in need.

TORONTO

The Canadian Headquarters of The Foundation Faith is the center of so many exciting and important ministries and programs that it is impossible to do justice to the energy and imagination of our brethren in Canada in this short space. However, The Lord guides that we give a special mention to The Prison Ministry directed by Sr. Ione Lorraine with the help of Disciple Mark Breach. The excellence and spiritual strength of this ministry has made it an influential force for GOD at the very highest levels of The Ontario Department of Corrections.

•

NEW ORLEANS

The Divine Grace Ministries guided by Director Rev. Hope White continues to provide a vital and unique program which offers crisis shelter to those in need through a large residential facility in New Orleans' lower Garden District.

An on going program of modernization and renovation provides those in need with the only facility in New Orleans where shelter and counselling are combined with a 'normal', non-institutional setting for getting one's life back on track.

Your help and support are always appreciated. Contact Rev. Simon at The Divine Grace Ministries.

PHOENIX

Jewish Crusade for Jesus Director Rev. Michael Mountain has been appointed to the Directorship of 'United Humanitarians', a Phoenix based organization that has, for many years, been promoting the cause of animal rights.

Virtually all of Rev. Mountain's work is devoted to animals and we know that he will bring the kind of energy to 'United Humanitarians' that makes his ministry a focal point for the animal rights movement in Phoenix.

You can be an important partner in any of the Ministries of The Foundation Faith of GOD. This great work needs your love offerings and prayers.
